TOPO MAPS

1. Lines of latitude run north - south and lines of longitude run east - west. T or F?
2. Lines of latitude run equidistant from each other. T OR F?
3. How many minutes are there in one degree of latitude (or longitude)?
4. The most common map scale for a 7.5-minute map is 1:24,000. T or F?
5. How many 7.5-minute maps are required to represent the same area as one 15-minute map?
6. 7.5’ maps made by the USGS generally span how many miles north to south? East to west?
7. Which map provides more detail, a 7.5-minute map or a 15-minute map?
8. A contour line is a line that connects points of ____________.
9. Every 5th contour line is darker in color. This line is called an ________ contour line.
10. The most common contour interval for 7.5-minute maps is 80’. T or F?
11. The color black on the map represents what kind of features?
12. A field of tall grass three feet high will be represented by the color green on a topo map. T or F?